Italcementi S.p.A. Investor Relations Department internal procedures require that telephone conversations with investors and financial analysts might be registered, after they have been previously authorized.

We wish to inform that, pursuant to art. 13 of the Italian Legislative Decree 196/2003 ("Code on the protection of personal data" hereinafter referred to as the "Code"), any personal data and information communicated in the course of the telephone conversation, that has been previously authorized, will be collected and saved by Italcementi S.p.A. on electronic and computer systems, protected and treated with appropriate measures and procedures to minimize the risk of destruction or loss, even accidental, and to guarantee their non-modifiability and confidentiality, even in accordance with other laws that may apply.

Information and data provided will be used only for purposes strictly related to the activity carried out by the Investor Relations Department of Italcementi S.p.A. or related to law requirements, regulations, national and European laws and administrative Authorities' decisions.

Italcementi S.p.A. will delete the telephone conversation and all copies and/or reproductions on paper form after one year elapsed, whether not otherwise requested by judicial and/or administrative Authorities or retained because necessary for participating in legal proceedings.

The Owner of the data processing is Italcementi S.p.A., with registered office in Bergamo, Via Camozzi 124, in the person of the Director of the Human Resources and Organizational Development department. A list of the other administrators, if necessary, may be required.

We also inform that rights as provided for by art. 7 of the Code might be exercised (access data, updating, correction, addition, transformation, deletion). In order to exercise these rights, the Manager appointed for this purpose might be contacted by sending an email to the address infoprivacy@italcementi.it.
